

e-Bulletin20080415

---

REMINDER: LET'S GET OUT THE VOTE NEXT WEEK!

---

Pennsylvania's Primary Election Day is next Tuesday, April 22. Today, April 15, is the last opportunity to apply for an absentee ballot. If you plan to be away next week, take time to assure your vote will be counted. Your application must be delivered in person to your county's election bureau by 5 PM. An application form is attached.

Following is a link to the list of all 67 county election bureau locations:

<http://www.dos.state.pa.us/voting/cwp/view.asp?a=1195&q=443005&votingNav=|<http://www.dos.state.pa.us/voting/cwp/view.asp?a=1195&amp;q=443005&amp;votingNav=%7C>>

Detailed information about absentee voting is available at this site:

<http://www.dos.state.pa.us/voting/cwp/view.asp?a=1193&q=442991>
<<http://www.dos.state.pa.us/voting/cwp/view.asp?a=1193&amp;q=442991>>

April 18 is the last day for county election bureaus to receive voted civilian absentee ballots.

[Note: TAUP has not endorsed any candidate for the upcoming primary election. No TAUP or AFT union dues monies are ever used to support candidates. TAUP's COPE funds – which come from members' voluntary contributions - are only used to support local and state candidates.]

---

Attachment: absentee\_ballot\_application\_\(08-13-04\).pdf (136k bytes) Open