ARTICLE 22.B.1

Prestigious Fellowships and Awards

1. When a full-time faculty member receives a prestigious external fellowship or award and Temple grants an unpaid leave for the purpose of pursuing the activities described in this award, Temple shall provide full benefits throughout the leave. The collegial assembly of each school and college shall make a recommendation to the Dean regarding which fellowships and awards should be considered "prestigious" within each discipline. The Dean will consider the recommendation and make a final determination.
