In either year, the amount granted for promotion shall be reduced by the amount of the increase received the prior July 1, due to the application of salary minima.

D. Faculty Merit Increases

Merit increases reflect the special accomplishments of a faculty member in one or more of the following areas: teaching, research, and service (as defined in the September, 1973, Faculty Handbook, pages 18 and 19). Faculty are evaluated for merit increases by their peers, by their chairperson and by their Dean.

Effective January 1, 1978, there shall be a merit fund for faculty at the rate of 1.0% of the faculty salaries as of June 30, 1977.

The following merit committees shall be established:

- a. A Department Merit Committee composed of bargaining unit faculty member(s) in a given department who are elected by the bargaining unit faculty members of that department. The Department Merit Committee member(s) shall have access to current salaries of faculty members in the department.

- b. A College Merit Committee composed of bargaining unit faculty members who are elected by the bargaining unit faculty members of that college for the express purpose of reviewing merit recommendations. The College Merit Committee should be constituted so that at least one third of its members are from ranks other than that of professor.
- c. A University Merit Committee composed of eight members, four appointed by AAUP and four appointed by Temple. In cases of a tie vote, the Vice President and Dean of Faculty shall make a final determination. The University Merit Committee shall establish guidelines, time limits, and other procedures for the utilization of merit funds, consistent with this Agreement.

The process for determining merit increases shall be as follows:

- 1. Effective January 1, 1977, each college shall be assigned a merit fund for faculty at the rate of 1.15% of the faculty bargaining unit members' salaries of that college as of June 30, 1976. Effective January 1, 1977, the University Merit Committee shall be assigned a merit fund for faculty at the rate of 0.1% of the faculty bargaining unit members' salaries as of June 30, 1976. Effective January 1, 1978 each college shall be assigned a merit fund for faculty at the rate of 1.0% of the faculty bargaining unit members' salaries of that college as of June 30, 1977. The Dean of each College, in consultation with the College Merit Committee, shall assign part or all of the college merit funds to the departments of the college.
- 2. Each Department Merit Committee and the chairperson of each department shall make recommendations utilizing the merit funds assigned to that department in order to reward special accomplishments of individual faculty members of the department in one or more of the areas of teaching, research and service. The Department Merit Committee shall evaluate the department chairperson's teaching, research, and service in the same manner as those of any other faculty member. The recommendations of the department chairperson and of the Department Merit Committee shall be forwarded to the Dean and to the College Merit Committee. These recommendations shall include written reasons for the awards.

3. Every department shall distribute to each of its faculty members a list of the department's merit recommendations.

Within five working days following notification of the department's recommendations, a faculty member may file an appeal simultaneously to the department chairperson, Dean, and College Merit Committee. Thereafter, within five working days, the department chairperson will respond in writing to the individual, with copies to the Dean and to the College Merit Committee.

4. The Dean and College Merit Committee shall review the recommendations coming from each department chairperson and each Department Merit Committee as well as all appeals. Each member of the faculty shall be notified of the recommendations concerning him made by the Dean and the College Merit Committee.
5. The Dean of the college, in and after consultation with the College Merit Committee, shall forward all recommendations to the Vice President and Dean of Faculty. In cases where
 - (a) the College Merit Committee and the Dean disagree, or
 - (b) the College Merit Committee and the Dean have decreased one or more recommendations of a departmental committee, or
 - (c) a faculty member believes that he has been denied proper reward for university level service in the normal merit review process,the Vice President and Dean of Faculty shall attempt to conciliate the differences. If this cannot be accomplished, the matter shall be referred to the University Merit Committee.
6. In all cases the decisions of the Vice President and Dean of Faculty and/or the University Merit Committee shall be final and binding on AAUP, on Temple, and on the faculty members involved and shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

E. Salary Inequity Adjustments For Faculty

A salary inequity adjustment fund at the annual rate of $120,000, shall be applied once effective January 1, 1977, towards correction of long standing faculty salary inequities and/or unrewarded merit.

Within 30 days after signing this Agreement, a University Inequity Committee, composed of four members appointed by AAUP and four members appointed by Temple, shall be established. This Committee shall be responsible for establishing criteria to determine salary inequities and shall also establish procedures for utilizing the salary inequity fund. The primary criterion used to identify potential candidates for an inequity award shall be a salary matrix with which the current salary of each tenured faculty member shall be compared. If the tenured faculty member's salary is below the appropriate matrix salary, the suggested adjustment shall be reviewed according to procedures established by the University Inequity Committee. The University Inequity Committee shall make the final determination of an inequity award or lack thereof. This determination by the University Inequity Committee shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

Upon completion of this review and award procedure, any funds unspent for salary inequity adjustments shall be promptly turned over to the University Merit Committee, which shall utilize them for further merit awards, effective January 1, 1977.

3. The sum of these awards shall not exceed the present total budget allocation for this category of compensation.
4. The Vice President and Dean of Faculty shall insure that the guidelines are followed.

Such coverage shall be rounded up to the next thousand dollars. The amount of additional insurance coverage shall be increased automatically to take base salary increments into account on the effective date of such increments.

F. Long-Term Disability

Long term disability insurance may be purchased by a bargaining unit member to cover 60 percent of the first $2,000. of his monthly salary and 40 percent of his monthly salary in excess of $2,000., after six months of continuous disability. K. Early Retirement

1. Any bargaining unit member who has had at least ten years of service at Temple and has reached at least age 55 can elect to go on early retirement at the age of 62 or later. The bargaining unit member must notify Temple in writing that he desires to retire early. Upon delivery of the written request, the bargaining unit member may elect to accelerate both his contribution (if any) and Temple's contribution in order that at the elected time of retirement, there will be additional contributions to his pension fund.

For example, if the election was made at age 55 that the employee wished to retire at age 62, the following alternatives are available:

Any bargaining unit member who chooses an early retirement date may, upon proper notice of at least one year in advance of retirement, change his retirement date and elect an alternative one.

2. Any bargaining unit member choosing early retirement shall receive, from the date of retirement until age 67, the medical fringe benefits comparable to those to which he would be entitled as a current full-time member of the bargaining unit, and term life insurance benefits, both non-contributing and contributing, at the level in existence at the time of early retirement.

L. Academic Professionals' Benefit Committee and Temple shall each appoint three members to an Academic Professionals Class I Review Committee which shall:

- (a) review all Academic Professional positions to determine which should be entitled to Class I benefits, and

The decision of the Vice President for Personnel Resources shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V Work Load

A. Faculty

1. Faculty teaching work loads shall be reasonable, fair and consistent with current practices and shall also reflect research activity, creative activity, and service to Temple University performed by the faculty member.

B. Librarians

1. The normal work load shall be 35 hours per week. The working hours of individuals shall be scheduled by each department in accordance with the standards of professional service.
2. Compensatory time off shall be granted as follows:
 - a. For each hour regularly scheduled and worked beyond 35 per week, one hour compensatory time off.
 - b. For each hour assigned on an unscheduled or emergency basis and worked beyond 35 per week, 1½ hours compensatory time off.
3. Compensatory time off may be accumulated by the librarian up to 70 hours and used at his option, subject to the approval of his supervisor, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

C. Academic Professionals

1. The normal work week shall be 35 hours. The working hours of individuals shall be scheduled by each department in accordance with the standards of professional service.
2. For all hours scheduled and worked beyond 35, compensatory time off shall be granted as follows:
 - a. Time and a half for all hours worked between 4:30

PM on Friday, or the day preceding a holiday, and 8:30 AM Monday or 8:30 AM of the next regularly scheduled work day following the holiday.

- b. Straight time off for all other over time hours, except as this may conflict with the Fair Labor Standards Act, which Act shall then apply.
3. Compensatory time off may be accumulated by the academic professional up to 70 hours and used at his option, subject to approval of his supervisor, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE VI Tenure Procedures

- A. Tenure practices and policies set forth in the Tenure statement approved by the Board of Trustees effective September 1, 1970, shall not be altered during the life of this Agreement without the concurrence of the Board of Trustees and the Faculty Senate.
- B. The policy of Temple is not to have quotas limiting the number of persons who can advance to the distinguished status of tenured faculty.
- C. Only after exhausting the internal appeals and only if the elected Personnel Committee of the Faculty Senate votes in favor of tenure for a faculty member and Temple rejects this recommendation, may an appeal be made. The decision by Temple to accept or reject a positive recommendation for tenure by the Personnel Committee of the Faculty Senate shall be made, after receipt by the Office of the President of such recommendation, within 30 days (excluding week ends and holidays) if filed between September 1 and December 15 or between January 15 and May 31, or within 45 days (excluding weekends and holidays) if filed during any other period.
 1. Temple's decision shall be communicated in writing to the faculty member, the Personnel Committee, and the AAUP.
 2. The candidate for tenure shall notify the Office of the President in writing, at least 10 days prior to the expiration of the applicable period, that he is expecting Temple's decision. The failure of the Office of the President to communicate Temple's decision within the specified time period shall be construed as Temple's approval of tenure.
 3. If the faculty member wishes to appeal the tenure decision of Temple, he must notify the Office of the President and the AAUP in writing within two weeks after receiving notification of Temple's decision.

- a. Thereafter, within one week, Temple and the AAUP shall jointly appoint a five-member Tenure Appeals Committee to review the decision.
 - b. If mutual agreement on the five members cannot be reached within one week, AAUP and Temple shall constitute a seven-member Tenure Appeals Committee. Within an additional week each party shall submit to the other party a list of four members from within the Temple Community.
 - c. Each party shall then strike two names from the list submitted by the other party. Those remaining shall promptly select three other members from within the Temple Community. The Committee of seven will then designate a chairperson.
4. By a majority vote, the Tenure Appeals Committee may:
- a. Confirm the decision of Temple, or
 - b. Reverse the decision of Temple, or
 - c. Remand one time for such further consideration as it deems appropriate.
 - (1) If the case is remanded for such further consideration and as a result the established time limits for a tenure decision are exceeded, it is hereby understood that this will not constitute de facto tenure.
 - (2) The Committee shall be empowered to direct when reconsideration must be completed. If the reconsideration decision extends past July 1, and the final decision is against tenure, the faculty member shall then receive an additional one-year terminal contract.
 - (3) If following remanding a Tenure Appeals Committee must again be constituted, the members thereof need not be the same persons as those who served on the Committee when the matter was initially remanded.

The decision of the Tenure Appeals Committee shall in all cases be final and binding upon Temple, the AAUP, and the faculty member involved. A tie vote shall be deemed to be a confirmation of the decision of Temple.

ARTICLE VII

Termination of Service of Faculty

- A. Termination of service of a tenured faculty member or of an appointment before the end of its specified term may be made only for retirement, adequate cause, or re-trenchment (i.e., financial exigency, discontinuation or reduction of a program or a department).
- B. Before terminating faculty members because of re-trenchment, Temple will make reasonable efforts to place the affected faculty members in other suitable positions. The released, tenured faculty member's position will not be filled with a replacement within a period of three years, unless the released faculty member has been offered, by inverse order of termination, re-employment in a tenured position (with at least his previous rank and salary) and at least one month within which to accept or decline. An untenured faculty member's position will not be filled for a period of 2 years without prior notification to the released faculty member that candidates for the position are being sought.
- C. Written notice that employment is to be terminated because of re-trenchment shall be given as follows:
 1. For a faculty member holding a first one-year contract expiring at the end of that academic year, not later than March 15; or if the one-year appointment terminates during an academic year, at least three months in advance of its termination.
 2. For a faculty member holding a second one-year contract or a third one-year contract expiring at the end of that academic year, not later than December 15; or if the second or third one-year appointment terminates during an academic year at least six months in advance of its termination.
 3. For an untenured faculty member who has either:
 - (a) completed three or more years of service at Temple, or
 - (b) been issued a three-year contract at the time of first appointment to Templeat least 12 months, spanning at least two full academic semesters.
 4. For tenured faculty, at least 18 months, spanning at least three full academic semesters.

5. In each case, Temple shall have the option of substituting equivalent severance salary.
- D. Retrenchment of faculty (or of librarians and/or academic professionals) is one of the last and most serious steps an institution of higher learning takes in times of financial crisis and should be consistent with the University's commitment to academic excellence and Affirmative Action.

Temple and AAUP agree that, as far as possible, the processes of natural attrition, voluntary early retirement, and voluntary leaves of absence shall be used instead of retrenchment. In the event that Temple is considering possible retrenchment, Temple and AAUP shall, upon reasonable notice not to exceed two weeks, meet to discuss the rationale for and implementation of retrenchment.

No written notice of termination on the basis of retrenchment shall be sent to any member of the bargaining unit prior to the meeting with AAUP to discuss retrenchment. If and when retrenchment notices are sent, concurrent copies of such notices shall be furnished to AAUP.

- E. The Faculty Handbook states in Article II that tenure decisions are made "in light of the long term structural academic needs of the departments." Therefore, the order of retrenchment for faculty within a department or program of instruction shall be:
1. Part-time faculty
 2. Non-tenured faculty, with individual decisions based upon such important factors as
 - (a) Affirmative action goals
 - (b) Academic excellence
 - (c) Years of service
- In cases 1 and 2, the faculty remaining shall have the requisite qualifications to perform the work required.
3. Tenured faculty, provided that the faculty member with the least years of service to Temple University shall be released first.
 - (a) In the event of identical years of service, the faculty member with the fewest years since achieving tenure shall be released first.
 - (b) In the event of identical years since achieving tenure, the faculty member of lowest rank shall be released first.
 - (c) A tenured faculty member can be retrenched in an order other than by seniority only if Temple proves beyond a reasonable doubt that he cannot perform work which is essential to the continuation of his department or program, while another tenured faculty member of lesser seniority (who would continue to be employed instead of the faculty member of greater seniority) can do this essential work.

4. Any faculty member retrenched may utilize the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

F. Dismissal For Adequate Cause:

The definitions and procedures approved by the Board of Trustees effective September 1, 1970 and stated on pages 13-16, entitled Termination of Service by the University, Article VII, Sections B and C, of the September, 1973, Faculty Handbook shall be included as part of this Agreement and shall not be altered as applied to members of the bargaining unit during the term of this Agreement without the concurrence of the AAUP, the Board of Trustees, and the Faculty Senate. These definitions and procedures shall govern the dismissal of a faculty member for adequate cause with the addition that if the Board of Trustees overrules the Hearing Committee's reconsideration decision, the faculty member involved may, within 10 days of notification of the overruling decision, seek to utilize the arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

G. Non-Renewal of a Term Appointment:

The procedures for written notices approved by the Board of Trustees effective September 1, 1970 and specified in the September, 1973 Faculty Handbook, Article VII, Section A, shall be included as part of this Agreement and shall not be altered as applied to members of the bargaining unit during the term of this Agreement without the concurrence of the AAUP, the Board of Trustees, and the Faculty Senate.

ARTICLE VIII Promotions

Any applicant for a promotion in rank, grade level, or position within the bargaining unit shall, upon the denial of his application and after the final exhaustion of internal appeals, be entitled to utilize the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. In any such arbitration the decision of Temple shall be upheld by the arbitrator unless the arbitrator shall find that the decision of Temple appears on its face to be arbitrary or capricious, or that it violates the procedures established herein for promotion or set forth in the 1973 edition of the Faculty Handbook. In either event, the remedy of the arbitrator shall be to remand the decision for reconsideration.

ARTICLE IX

Appointment, Promotion, and Termination of Service of Librarians

A. Terms of Appointment

1. All full time librarians within the bargaining unit shall be appointed for such terms of office as shall be provided in this statement of policy, subject to the provisions contained herein with respect to the termination of their appointments. The terms and conditions of every appointment shall be stated in writing and shall be in the possession of both Temple and the librarian before the appointment becomes effective.
2. Librarians who desire to be employed on a ten-month (two months leave without pay) basis rather than on a twelve-month basis shall make application in writing for the same to the Director by March 1st of the preceding fiscal year. The Director shall render a decision by April 1st. In the event that the request cannot be granted to all librarians submitting such a request, the Director, in making his determination, shall do so on the basis of the operating needs of the library, and the relative seniority of the librarians involved. Where there is a conflict and one or more of them has previously been refused in a prior request, then preference shall be granted to such librarian notwithstanding relative seniority.
3. Librarians shall be appointed initially for a term of one year and may be reappointed for two additional terms of one year and two years respectively to be followed by a regular appointment.
 - a) A committee defined by the librarians of the Academic Assembly will advise the Director on decisions to grant or not to grant reappointment during the first and second years. The Director's decision shall be made at least 90 days prior to the expiration of any contract. The Director's decision during the first and second year is not subject to the grievance or arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

b) The probationary period shall consist of a series of terms amounting to 4 years.

- (1) In the event that a librarian will not be granted a regular appointment, a termination of contract notice must be provided in writing at least six months prior to the expiration of his fourth year (with the appropriate fiscal year adjustment under A, 3b, sub (4)) of service, or he shall be granted a one-year terminal contract for his fifth year of service.
- (2) A librarian initially hired at the L1 rank must be recommended for promotion to the L2 rank within four years, or he will receive a terminal one-year contract (or a six months notice of termination).
- (3) Librarians currently employed with four or more years of full time service to the library, except those on a fifth year terminal contract, will be considered to have successfully completed the probationary period, and shall be granted a regular appointment.
- (4) For librarians hired in July, August, or September, their first one-year appointment shall terminate the following June 30. For librarians hired in October through June, their first one-year appointment shall terminate one year after the following June 30. For example, a librarian hired in October 1976 shall have a first one-year contract terminating June 30, 1978.

B. Standards for Promotion and Completion of the Probationary Period

1. Criteria for promotion and completion of the probationary period shall include:
 - a. effectiveness of performance as a librarian,
 - b. continuing professional growth as demonstrated by scholarly activities such as continuing education, participation in professional activities, and contributions to the profession
 - c. effectiveness of service to the library, and/or to the University.
2. For promotion from L1 to L2 a librarian must demonstrate a high degree of competence in the discharge of duties as a librarian. Promotion to L3 or L4 and/or completion of the probationary period shall be achieved by demonstrating a high degree of competency in a or b above and having effective performance in the other two criteria.

3. Librarians may always be considered for completion of the probationary period after shorter periods of service than those specified above. Under exceptional circumstances librarians with significant experience in the institution from which they come may be granted a regular appointment upon initial employment.
4. Librarians have the right to the professional expression of judgments and views.

C. Procedures

1. Consideration for promotion and/or completion of the probationary period may be initiated at the appropriate time by any or all of the following:
 - 1) librarian's immediate supervisor,
 - 2) the appropriate Committee defined by the librarians of the Academic Assembly,
 - 3) library administration,
 - 4) the librarian, or
 - 5) any other member of the academic community.
2. All initial evaluations for promotion, and during the third (2-year) appointment, completion of the probationary period shall be through the appropriate Committee of the Academic Assembly (which Committee is to be defined by the librarians of the Academic Assembly) and the list of candidates shall be sent to the Director.
3. The Committee shall submit its recommendations, and reasons therefore, to the Director and inform the individuals involved.
4. The Director will inform in writing the individuals and the Committee of his decisions and the reasons for them within ten days after receiving the recommendations of the Committee.
5. The decisions of the Director, and all recommendations of the Committee, shall be forwarded immediately to the Vice President and Dean of Faculty or his designee for final resolution. The decision of the Vice President and Dean of Faculty or his designee must be given in writing within ten days to the individual, the library Director, and the Committee of the Academic Assembly.
6. Librarians who have completed the probationary period shall maintain this status even if they have a physical or mental disability of up to twelve months' duration that prevents them from carrying out their responsibilities. With the appropriate medical certification, the librarian may return to his University responsibility with the status of having completed the probationary period.

7. Time spent on official leave from the University will not be included in the calculations of the various time periods stated above unless the librarian requests in writing to the Director, and the Director approves, that such leave time be included in the timing of decisions on completion of the probationary period.

D. Right of Appeal For Not Granting Regular Appointment

A librarian not granted regular appointment after the second year of the probationary period has the right to appeal the decision. Within two weeks after notification by the Vice President and Dean of Faculty or his designee of the decision not to grant regular appointment, the librarian must notify the Vice President and Dean of Faculty or his designee and the AAUP that he wishes to appeal the decision.

Temple and the AAUP will jointly within one week appoint an Appeals Committee of five members of the Temple Community to review the decision. If mutual agreement on the five members, including the designation of a chairperson, cannot be arrived at within one week, AAUP and Temple shall constitute a seven member committee. Within one additional week each shall submit to the other party a list of four members of the Temple Community. Each party shall then strike two names from the list submitted by the other party. The remaining three members, including the designation of the Committee chairperson, shall then be chosen by Temple and the AAUP within one additional week from within the Temple Community.

By a majority vote the Appeals Committee may either:

1. Confirm the decision of Temple
2. Reverse the decision
3. Remand one time for such further consideration as it deems appropriate.

If the case is remanded for such consideration and as a result the established time limits for a decision concerning regular appointment are exceeded, it is hereby understood that this will not constitute de facto regular appointment. The Committee shall be empowered to direct when reconsideration must be completed and, where appropriate, to award an additional one-year contract. In all cases, if the reconsideration decision extends past June 30, and the final decision is against a regular appointment, the librarian shall then receive an additional one-year terminal contract.

If following remanding the Appeals Committee must again be constituted the members thereof need not be the same persons as those who served on the Committee when the matter was initially remanded.

The decision of the Appeals Committee shall in all cases be final and binding upon Temple, the AAUP, and the librarian involved. A tie vote shall be deemed to be a confirmation of the decision of Temple.

E. Procedures for Periodic Evaluation of Librarians

1. During the initial six months of employment, the immediate supervisor and the librarian shall meet at least once for informal discussions of professional performance and responsibilities involved. At the end of six months a written evaluation shall be made by the supervisor, discussed with the librarian, signed by both, and placed in the librarian's personnel file. This signing shall not be deemed to constitute approval by the librarian. The librarian is entitled to attach any written comment or refutation he deems appropriate to the evaluations.
2. Thereafter, annual written evaluations shall be made each January by the immediate supervisor, discussed with the librarian, signed by both and placed in the librarian's personnel file. The librarian is entitled to attach any written comment or refutation he deems appropriate to the evaluation.

F. Termination of Service by Temple.

1. Written notice that an appointment is to be terminated because of retrenchment or non-renewal of a term appointment shall be given to a librarian as follows:
 - ↳ Three months for less than two years of service

3. Retrenchment shall be made according to the following order:

 - b) librarians on probationary appointment according to the inverse date of hire within the library. In each case, the librarians remaining shall have the requisite qualifications or specialties to perform the work required,
 - c) librarians who have completed the probationary period by inverse order of date of hire within the library.

G. Dismissal for Adequate Cause

1. Adequate cause means incompetence, grave misconduct, or neglect of duty.
2. Dismissal for adequate cause of a librarian who has completed the probationary period, or before the end of the specified term of an appointment, will be preceded by:
 - a) discussion between the librarian and appropriate administration officers looking toward a mutual settlement and/or informal inquiry by the Academic Assembly, seeking a resolution;
 - b) a statement of reasons framed with reasonable particularity from the Director. This statement of reasons must be sent to the librarian and to the AAUP. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the librarian involved, he may use the grievance and arbitration procedure.

H. Recall

1. Following a lay off due to retrenchment, any librarian laid off due to retrenchment shall be recalled in inverse order of lay off provided he has the present ability to perform the work available. Laid off employees shall have recall rights for a period equal to their length of service but in no event for more than two years.

2. The academic professional or the AAUP may, within 30 days after receipt of the revised or original job description, file a grievance if he or the AAUP feels that

 - (b) that the stated duties do not qualify the individual as an academic professional.
3. Any new or vacated position may be designated as a fiscal year or academic year position.
4. An academic professional may request a two-month leave of absence without pay. Such leave is subject to the approval of his supervisor, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

The evaluation shall be signed by both parties and placed in the academic professional's personnel file. This signing shall not be deemed to constitute approval by the academic professional. The academic professional is entitled to attach any written comment or refutation he

ARTICLE XI

- A. The AAUP and Temple recognize that the role of the chairperson differs among academic units across the University and even within departments in any school or college. Accordingly, the AAUP and Temple agree that in the designation of any chairperson the mode of designation of the department's nominee shall be determined by the department, provided that the department shall consult with the Dean before making a final determination of the procedure and the last such instance of consultation shall occur no more than thirty days before a nominee is to be designated. Normally, no chairperson shall be nominated or appointed without the approval of a majority of full-time faculty of the department. Should the Dean find it necessary not to accept the department's nominee, he shall ask for an alternate nominee. In the event the Dean again declines to accept the department's nominee, the Dean shall immediately appoint an acting chairperson, for a period not to exceed one year, and shall account for his action to the appropriate faculty body in his college.
- B. Accordingly, the AAUP and Temple agree that the designation of the departmental chairperson shall be the mutual concern and shall require the input of the Dean and the departmental faculty, and that no chairperson shall be designated without departmental faculty and Dean concurrence in the appointment.
- C. Chairpersons are appointed for initial terms not to exceed five years. Beyond this, with due consideration to the
